

Internship/Leadership Positions at a Berkeley Non-Profit

College Leap:

A nonprofit founded at UC Berkeley by BerkeleyHaas students to empower the international students at community colleges by providing leadership, mentorship and extracurricular opportunities for free. You can find more information at our website here

College Leap Chapters:

College Leap chapters are student clubs at community colleges. With the help and guidance from the College Leap team, they serve as local liaisons and strive to build projects that help the international community at their colleges.

Each chapter is run by a 6-person leadership team, and all leaders are considered as non-paid interns at College Leap with offers and internship certificates.

As a chapter leader, you will receive:

- an Internship experience at a Berkeley nonprofit to give back to your community;
- a hands-on opportunity to work with highly motivated UC Berkeley students;
- a leadership journey to enrich your transfer application;
- priorities in participating in activities and mentorship offered by College Leap.

To become a chapter leader, you need to:

- be a full time student at a community college;
- At least 8 hours per week (exclude final/midterm weeks);
- fill in the application form here (resume is optional);
- have weekly meetings to set goals and hit them to remain your position.

Note:

*Positions are open to both international students and local students

*For those whose colleges have yet got a chapter, we encourage you to apply and be the founding leaders;

*For those whose chapter leadership positions are filled, we still encourage you to apply to join the candidate pool since we change the leaders frequently based on their performance.

*If you have any questions, feel free to contact us at team@collegeleap.cc
